Once you've completed a course, you can review every quiz attempt you made on it.

Open the review

- Employees and administrators: open your transcript (Transcript, or My Training → My Transcript). Click sections under the course, then Review next to a section.
- Individual learners: on My Transcript, click Review answers under the course.

What you'll see

Each attempt shows its date, your Score and the pass mark, and whether it Passed or was Not passed. The newest attempt is open; click an older one to expand it.

For each question:

- Your choice is labelled Your answer. The right choice is labelled Correct answer and highlighted in green.
- The question is marked Correct, Incorrect or Not answered.
- The explanation appears under the options.

Click Print to print the review or save it as a PDF.

> NOTE
>
> Retaking a course? If the same course has been assigned to you again, or you've bought it again, and you haven't finished it yet, the review still shows which questions you got right but hides the correct answers and explanations until you finish the new one.

Why can't I review a course I'm still taking?

Reviews are available for completed courses only, so the answers to a quiz you haven't passed yet stay private. If you don't pass a section quiz, the results page shows a Question Review right away. See Quizzes: passing score and retakes.

Individual courses completed before October 29, 2026 have no saved answers to review.
